

Metropolitan King County Council

Town Hall Meetings

Bringing the County Council to your Neighborhood

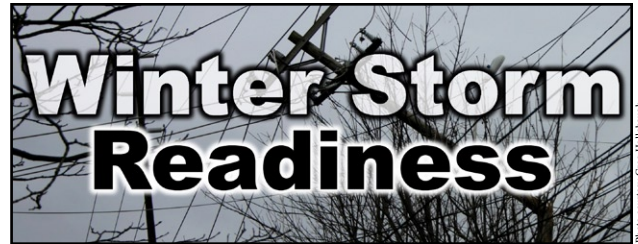

Please join the King County Council in West Seattle for our next Town Hall Meeting focusing on Winter Storm Readiness. The meeting will feature key utility and County representatives, including:

- Jerry Henry, Senior Advisor to the Chairman, Puget Sound Energy
- Eric Holdeman, Director of the King County Office of Emergency Management

Councilmembers and local residents will be briefed on the major challenges the region faces in responding to severe winter storms, the lessons learned from this year's events, and what government and the public can do to be better prepared.

At the conclusion of business, the Council will take public testimony on any issue.

We look forward to seeing you at our next Town Hall Meeting!

Date: Monday, February 5

Time: 6:30 P.M. Reception
7:00 P.M. Meeting

Place: The Hall at Fautleroy
9131 California Ave SW
Seattle, WA 98136

The King County Council is a regional government committed to engaging King County residents in their local communities.

Throughout the year, the Council holds local Town Hall Meetings on issues of public importance. Community members have the opportunity to meet Councilmembers, be briefed by local and regional experts, and provide public testimony.
